Park Dept. Forms 'Golden Age Club,' Leisure Group For Older Persons

Plans Activities For Oft-Neglected Group

The Park Commission this week announced the formation of a Golden Age Club for persons in the community who are 65 years of age or over. The purpose of the club will be to provide an opportunity for older residents to band together for the mutual enjoyment of leisure time activities.

"Fun does not stop at sixty" is the slogan of the Golden Age Club in Milwaukee, and members of the local club on meeting days and at other times during the week, will play chess, checkers, dominoes, cribbage or cards, will listen to the radio, read or visit. The as-yet-not-fully-organized program for meetings will take various forms, including discussion groups, lectures on topics of popular interest, music, dramatic presentations and movies. Special events may include birthday and anniversary parties, community singing, old-time dancing, picnics, and tour, with light refreshments served after each formal meeting. There also are many avenues open for members to render service to others, either as individuals or as a club.

An invitation to join the club has been extended by the Park Commission to a number of residents and the response to date has been most encouraging. Through the medium of local newspapers, churches, and social organizations, the Park Dept. now extends a further invitation to all residents 65 years or over to participate in the activities of the new Golden Age group.

It also is stated that the business office operation for Lexington and Lincoln, formerly housed at Waltham, have been transferred here.

Lads Shovel Snow Three Hours, Give Money To March Of Dimes

A resident called The News the other day to ask where she would send money for the March of Dimes. As she told why she wanted to know, a very interesting story developed. Here it is as contained in a note we asked her to write us:

"This little note my son typed really surprised me, and I think it is worthy enough to print, if you'd like. He and two other boys shovelled snow the first day of the storm and pooled their money to send it to the March of Dimes. Here is an exact copy of the note he sent to Mr. Clarence Marsh.

"Dear Sir:
"It started to snow hard last night. When I woke up this morning, the snow was one foot thick. I went outside and found there was nothing to do. I got together some boys and started to clean sidewalks at the price of ten cents a walk. First we cleaned an old lady's sidewalk, next we cleaned a man's sidewalk, etc. We worked three hours.

Yours truly,
RICHARD WHARTON, aged 9,
6 Mott Street.
JAY PLATT, age 9,
10 Mott Street.
DICKIE KANE, age 10,
26 Mott Street.

"P. S. I am enclosing the $1.21 we earned from cleaning sidewalks."

"These boys are all cub scouts of Pack 83 here in East Arlington."

Very sincerely yours,
ALTHEA O. WHARTON

T.V. Goes To School

Television was installed in the auditorium of Arlington schools on inauguration day so that students might see history in the making. School was not dismissed as in some localities, and the auditorium meetings were designated as "current events" classes.

In Hardy School three T.V. sets were in the school, one loaned by John Dempsey, a teacher in Junior High East, and two hired for the occasion by the Hardy P.T.A.

Avery Radio Store was one of the local stores loaning out television sets for the day, and one of its sets—a new 17 inch job—went to Junior High School Industrial Arts, where good citizenship is given special emphasis by Principal Elsie Merserve.

Back In Hospital, Wells Now Better

Arthur Wells, executive secretary of the Board of Assessors, was rushed to the Boston Osteopathic Hospital last Friday morning with 12 hours after returning home from the hospital. He underwent an emergency operation and was placed on the danger list for four days. Happily, he is now said to be improved.

Mr. Wells previously operated on for ulcers and treated for peritonitis, responded well and was allowed to return home. Later, when he tried to lie down, he experienced severe pain and was hurried to the hospital for an abdominal operation.

The Boys' Club Associates has announced that it will hold a card party in the Town Hall on Thursday, January 29 at 8:00 p.m.

Albert J. Fuller Withdraws Name

Endorses Joseph Greeley

Albert J. Fuller, one of the candidates for the three-year term of Selectman, yesterday afternoon withdrew his name from the political race on advice of his physician. His statement of withdrawal read as follows:

"On the advice of Doctor Foley of a hospital in Boston, under whose care I have been for the past eight months for a heart condition, it becomes obligatory for me to withdraw my name from the three-year contest for the office of Selectman in our town, much to my keen disappointment and chagrin.

"May I, through your paper, express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the host of workers in my behalf and to the more than 700 Arlingtonians who so graciously and willingly affixed their names to my nomination papers for this office. Their support in this respect is deeply appreciated.

"In closing out my own personal interest at this time, it would be further appreciated if these 700 odd citizens who believed in me would express comparable interests in the efforts and endeavors of Mr. Joseph Greeley, candidate for the office of Selectman for the one-year term.

"Thank you.
Sincerely,
ALBERT J. FULLER.

24 Weeks' Vacation Proposed According To Service Rendered

In a move prior to the closing of the town warrant on Monday, January 19, the Arlington Personnel Board submitted to the Board of Selectmen a plan for uniform vacations and, at the request of the Board of Selectmen, uniform sick leaves. The plan, also touching on overtime and lunch periods, will be submitted to Town Meeting members on March 2 in the form of a by-law. As a prospective by-law, it will require a two-thirds vote for passage.

The plan evolved, it is understood, because of wide variance among the town departments as to vacations and sick leave allowed. The plan has been outlined to representatives of the Town Employees association for their consideration.

Provisions of the proposal follow:

85 Articles In New Warrant

The Board of Selectmen has asked for bids for the printing of 13,000 copies of the new town warrant, with bids to be received at their office until 4:45 p.m. Monday January 26. At that time, all bids received will be opened publicly and read. It will be of the same general type as has been issued in past years and according to informal statements made in the Town Hall, the warrant will contain either 84 or 85 articles.

Said an official of the Town Hall, "Whether we have three or five or more sessions of Town Meeting this year depends largely on the Town Meeting members themselves. If they attend precinct meetings, which are arranged for their information and aid, and if they thoroughly acquaint themselves with and discuss the provisions of the articles, then Town Meeting will run efficiently and not be of long and tiresome duration."

The spokesman then added the information that the Brookline Town Meeting lasts only one or two evenings because members attend not to be informed but to vote on what they already understand.

Miss Caterino graduated from Arlington High School in 1950 and is now employed by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in Arlington. Mr. Harrington graduated from St. Johns, Cambridge in 1949 and is now serving with the U. S. Air Force in Thule, Greenland.

Student To Be Taught Income Tax Procedure

During the last week of this month, students in the economics classes at Arlington High will be taught the proper procedure for filling out income tax forms. A large number of Arlington pupils have had personal income which must be reported, and the many questions they have raised have convinced W. Ray Burke, head of the commercial department, and James J. Toner, who teaches economics, that such instruction would be advisable. Most of the students in their classes fall into the employed group.

Enlarged copies of forms W2, W4 and 1040 have been obtained for demonstration purposes and these, together with form 1040A and long form 1040, will be thoroughly discussed. It is hoped, said the instructors, that the instructions given pupils will be passed on to other pupils and to parents who may appreciate the help.

Mrs. Arthur A. Morrison, Mrs. A. Henry-Ottosen, Mrs. William E. Cowley and Mrs. Theodore T. Shackford as a panel, offered their suggestions to problems presented to them by Mrs. William D. Morse, the moderator, and an interesting evening was the result.

Local Heart Chmn.

LaVerne W. Anders of 25 Rangely Road will serve as Arlington chairman of the 1953 Heart Fund Campaign, to be held during the month of February 1953. It has been announced by Paul F. Clark, state chairman.

In accepting the chairmanship, Anders said, "I am indeed proud to accept the chairmanship of the 1953 Heart Drive. I believe that every man, woman and child should be made aware of the tremendous strides which have been made in the fight against heart disease. It is only through the continued support of the Heart Fund that his wonderful work will progress."

Anders pointed out that 60 percent of the funds collected in Arlington are used to carry on a local program of heart research, education and community services.

PTA Play "Heidi" Here Saturday

"We are often surprised to find in looking back over our own lives, as well as the lives of famous successful people, that what appeared at one time to be a calamity has proved in reality to be the turning point which opened the way to a goal beyond our fondest dreams." So said Mrs. Harriett Talcott, publicity chairman for the P.T.A.—sponsored program, "Heidi."

"Youngsters will see a dramatic example of this when they see the Clare Tree Major Children's Theatre production of "Heidi" which will be shown here under the auspices of Arlington P.T.A. Council Fine Arts Program on the stage of the Junior High East Auditorium at 10:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m. and 3:15 p.m. this Saturday."

"The story," explained Mr. Talcott, "is one of a little girl who had to go about in a wheelchair, and the young audiences will see that when we attempt the impossible we are often rewarded by accomplishment."

In Y.W. Open-House

Three Arlington residents—Miss Bertha Deraney, 32 Orris Road, Miss Jean Ford, 90 Kensington Park, and Mrs. Clayton Friis, 21 Montague Street—participated in the Boston YWCA's "Paris in the Spring" open house, a preview of spring term activities beginning at the YW the week of February 2.

Miss Deraney was in charge of one of the booths; Miss Ford took part in a square dance demonstration; Mrs. Friis took part in a tennis demonstration.

The evening's entertainment stressed informal education courses, clubs, sports, arts and crafts and the over-all recreation program at the YW.

M.T.A. SERVICE IMPROVEMENT RESULT OF ASSN. COMPLAINT

On Monday night of this week, the East Arlington Town Meeting Members Assn., meeting in the basement of the home of Mrs. Paul Bowler, 42 Marathon St., held its own "candidate night," hearing directly from several candidates just how they stand on community issues and what they propose to do if elected.

Also numbered among those present was William J. Carney of 28 Bates Road, superintendent of surface lines for the M.T.A. Mr. Carney's presence resulted from his seeing an article in The News concerning complaints of the East Arlington association against M.T.A. service between Harvard Square and Arlington Heights. Calling the association, he discussed the matter of service for Arlington and agreed to attend Monday's meeting.

Discussion of M.T.A. service and the M.T.A. deficit, including the proposal of a "head tax" on all persons in the Boston suburb and fringe area consumed the early part of the evening. "The M.T.A. has taken spot checks of the number of cars and the number of passengers used on the Cambridge-Arlington line," said Carney, "and, as a result, already has given the Harvard Sq. starter authority to change the routing of surface cars according to the needs of passenger traffic." Listeners agreed this should improve service on the line.

A complaint against the transfer system used at the Harvard Sq. station also was registered with Mr. Carney. "Passengers coming in from the Watertown line and those moving to take the Arlington car are trying to go in opposite directions in the same space," he was told. A survey of the matter, with any possible improvement, was promised.

Candidates present at the evening meeting included Cesare Fiorina and Donald Munroe, candidates for Selectman; Francis Coughlin, candidate for Park Commissioner; Herman Ockenga, seeking a place on the Planning Board; James Coffey, seeking a return to the Housing Authority; and Robert Brosnan, candidate for Library Trustee.

Annual Meeting January 30

The Arlington Social Service League will hold its annual meeting and election of officers on Friday, January 30 at 2:30 p.m. in the hall of Robbins Memorial Library. An interesting program has been planned, to be followed with a tea.

"Put Your Dime In The 'Mile'" Bresnan Urges

A special Mile o' Dimes race will be held in Arlington Center tomorrow night from 7:00 to 9:00 on Massachusetts Ave., between Medford and Mystic Streets.

Co-sponsors with the March of Dimes organization will be the Arlington Boys Club, assisted by Arlington Post 39 American Legion. Commander William O'Brien announced that the local Legion Post Band will provide music for the occasion and that members of the post would help the boys with the novel event. Jim Sumner, director of the Boys Club, has arranged two teams of boys in wheel chairs to start from a central point and a race will be held to see which boys can reach the street corner first.

"But," says Donald Bresnan, March of Dimes chairman, "this isn't an ordinary race, and the only way the boys can move is for passersby to lay a dime or two in front of the wheel chairs. We're not after a 'mile' of dimes, but we do want a 'block' of dimes. Naturally, everything we take in will help polio victims in their fight against paralysis."

Daughter Visits Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark Wyman of 62 Richfield Road, recently enjoyed a five-day visit from their daughter, Phyllis, who has been in New York since July 1st working with the New York public library system. On September 1st she was appointed to organize, catalog, order, and circulate the first circulating music library in that area, located at St. George, Staten Island. She is delighted with her new work she says.

Miss Wyman also plays with the Staten Island Symphony Orchestra, a small chamber music group on the island, and teaches violin.

Golf Classes Start

Golf classes under the instruction of John Thorén, golf pro at Myopia Country Club, conducted by the Park Commission on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, began this week. Classes have been heavily enrolled and it is the present plan to form two new classes to be held on Friday evenings. Any resident of Arlington wishing to enroll is requested to contact the Park Department office, AR 5-3136.

Davis Sq. Shop Offers Woolens

The Yarn Shop, located at 51 Davis Square, Somerville, is now offering knitters some exceptional bargains in first quality knitting wool of all colors. Many of the special prices offered are listed elsewhere in this paper.

The Yarn Shop has been located in Davis Square for the past 12 years and deals not only in retail quantities but in wholesale as well. "Because we handle large quantities of wool, we are able to give our customers lower prices," stated Benjamin Slavin, the store manager. In addition, our store also sells knitwear and bathing suits," he said.

The Yarn Shop also carries a line of costume jewelry.

June Wedding Planned By Arlington Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Alger of 77 Fountain Rd., Arlington announces the engagement of their daughter Beverly Marie to Paul A. Cantrell, the son of Mrs. Cecil Cantrell of Cambridge. Miss Alger graduated from Arlington High School and the Boston School of Dental Nursing. Mr. Cantrell attended B. U. and Tampa University and served with the Marine Corps during World War II. Their wedding will take place in June.

Article To Appear In Warrant Asks Full Property Revaluation

Would Have Outside Firm Do Reassessment

An article has been placed in the warrant by the Board of Selectmen which—when and if approved by the Town Meeting—will cause a complete revaluation of all real estate in Arlington.

This action was instigated by George A. Harris, who sponsored the article, together with more than 10 registered voters. A hearing will be held by the Finance Committee some time prior to the first gathering of Town Meeting members.

Mr. Harris stated, in response to a query: "For the past several years, we who are interested in the welfare of the Town have heard many requests from residents for a thorough re-study of current assessments. We all talk about doing something but nothing happens. Hence, I have enlisted the aid of some interested citizens and have had placed on the agenda for the next Town Meeting, an article in which, at the very least, will bring about a discussion of the problem."

"It is my opinion and that of the other sponsors of the article that the time is here in which all land and real estate of any nature should have a thorough going-over by some outside firm. Many other towns and cities have done this to the benefit of the vast majority of owners. This article is not a criticism of the present Board of Assessors but rather a criticism of many of the past Boards back for several generations. When assessing such a large area as Arlington, no complete job can be done annually. Therefore, over a period of many years, we feel that some assessments are too high, some are too small. Revaluing by a reputable disinterested concern will bring to all an equal base of judgment. We feel that this will be of great assistance to our Assessors and, while the cost of such a survey might at first seem high, in reality, the Town would receive much more revenue over the next few years. The revaluation, I believe, would pay its own cost many times over."

"It has been the experience," Mr. Harris continued, "of many towns and cities that the complaints from owners regarding the revaluation, are in the negligible minority. . . in fact, only a token few people can object, for the revaluation is spread to all concerned and all are equal on a comparative basis."

A BOON TO ARLINGTON LIFE

During the past week the Arlington Park and Recreation Dept. announced to the general public, and to older residents of Arlington in particular, the establishment of a "Golden Age Club." The club has as its prime concern the needs of local residents who, because of more or less advanced age, have retired from life's busy main arena of activity. Just as pre-school children, parents, teen-agers, and other age levels of society have their own particular problems, so also have the older citizens. At last this group is to receive some proper attention.

For many years now, people of this country have been aware of the fact that the percentage of older persons in our society has been increasing. This has occurred for many reasons, among them the fact that medical science has made it possible for all of us to live longer and because knowledge of birth control has made possible the spacing of children, so that fewer children (with better chances of survival) are born. Because of our rising age level, new problems have come which never concerned us before: 1) we have at hand scores of unused but experienced minds whose value should not be lost to the community; 2) we have the age-old but now intensified problem of making older persons know they have a real and proper place in the community; 3) we find that recreation is of importance to the elderly group just as it is to every other age level; 4) we realize that recreational movements don't start themselves but must be consciously organized.

The need for organization on the problems above listed has been felt increasingly now for a number of years, and many cities and towns have set themselves to the establishment of clubs with facilities and programs tuned to mature needs. In one city the club for older persons is called "The Wagon Wheel," and its program includes square dances, monthly birthday parties, discussion groups, and many other types of activity. As this club fills a genuine need, so will the Arlington club.

The News congratulates the Arlington Park and Recreation Dept. and Superintendent Dan McFadden for their realization of current needs and their efforts to do something about them. It also hopes that other residents of Arlington will lend support for this close-to-home project and that the program will supply not only needed recreation but an outlet for the many talents of Arlington's older residents.

News Of The Armed Forces

Marine Cpl. William F. Corcoran, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Iverson of 57 Wollaston Ave., serving with the Schools Demonstration Troops at Quantico, took part in President Eisenhower's inaugural parade staged in Washington, D. C. Tuesday.

The most colorful military display held in the nation's capital in years 20,000 members of the armed forces marched before the new chief executive.

Marine aviation also contributed its part to the colorful pageant, with more than 90 fighter planes in the vast air armada giving an aerial salute to their new Commander-in-Chief.

Headed by the Marine Band, the unit in which Cpl. Corcoran marched, was a specially selected provisional Marine infantry battalion supported by field artillery pieces. They were followed by a company of "Lady Leathernecks."

Kenneth G. Skinner, 193 Westminster Ave., is home on leave, having recently graduated from the Artillery O. C. S. and received his commission as second lieutenant in the U. S. Army. Upon completion of his leave, he will be stationed at Fort Devens.

His mother, Mrs. Charles W. Skinner, flew to Fort Sill, Oklahoma for the graduation ceremony.

Pvt. Thomas F. Grady Jr., whose parents live at 7 Fordham St., Arlington, recently completed his ninth month in Korea with the 7th Infantry Division.

The 7th has fought continuously in Korea since its landing at Inchon in the fall of 1950. During its two years of combat in the mountainous terrain the Division has battled in every sector of the peninsula. Elements of the 7th were the only U. S. forces to reach the Yalu River.

Grady, who entered the Army in September 1951, is a member of the 31st Field Artillery Battalion.

Cpl. Edward J. Donovan, whose parents live at 50 Dorothy Rd., Arlington, recently graduated from the Seventh Army's Non-Commissioned Officers Academy at Munich, Germany.

During the six-week course, he was taught techniques of combat leadership.

Corporal Donovan has been in Germany since last March and is serving as a section chief in Battery C of the 45th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion.

He entered the Army in March 1951 and received his basic training at Fort Dix, N. J.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

It has been brought to the attention of the Committee of Citizens in Support of Town Manager that candidates for selectmen, when questioned about Town Manager, frequently say "I believe in giving the Town Manager a fair trial." This is evading the issue. Arlington now has a Town Manager by law.

Is the candidate going to wholeheartedly support the new form of government or is he going to carry into office with him past bitterness that was overworked before Town Manager became the law?

Through your paper, our committee wishes to suggest that voters choose their selectmen carefully. The Town Manager cannot function properly for Arlington if he is constantly "on trial" before the Board of Selectmen. He must be wisely chosen and then given the full confidence of the Board for his three-year term.

MARY C. ANDERSON,
Chairman Committee of Citizens in Support of Town Manager.

(Editor's note: The Committee is sponsoring a "Candidates' Night" at Junior High East on February 17 at 7:45 o'clock. Edmund Frost will be moderator.)

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club of A. H. S. has selected as the play to put on this year, "Our Miss Brooks." I am sure you all have either heard or seen the radio or television show by the same name. I assure you that the play is every bit as funny. The play will be put on February 20th at the Junior High East Auditorium.

The cast includes Judy Kerivan as Miss Brooks, plus Alyce Borgstrom, Haley Andrews, Bruce Warren, Sara Walkinsaw, Janet Mongeau, Ann Cavanaugh, Dolores Johnson, Virginia Lyons, Ann O'Rourke, Gail Alderson, Marguerite Claar, Norma Kazanjian, Richard Bean, Robert Sampson, Patricia Witt and "yours truly."

Arlington High, Winchester High Planning Two Combined Concerts

For the third successive year, the combined orchestras of Arlington and Winchester High Schools will present concerts in the two towns in the next few weeks. Tried as an experiment two years ago, the idea proved so successful that it has been continued. The concert in Winchester will be held on January 30 and in Arlington on February 6.

The combined orchestras will comprise about 45 pieces. Each group has had its own rehearsals and there have been two combined rehearsals, one in each town. The joint group will be conducted by L. Hassler Einzig, supervisor of music in Arlington and Frederick Felmet, supervisor in Winchester. Each will conduct part of the program in each school.

The programs, offered as regular school assemblies in each case, will include the following selections: "Vallant Night" Woodhouse
"Tres Joli" Waldteufel

"Petit Suite de Ballet" Gluch
"Plink, Plank, Plunk" Anderson
A Violin Solo by Bernadine Cosman, Arlington
